avri doria:i am on adobe and don't hear

Jeff Neuman:I am on Adobe and I can hear

Terri Agnew:Checking audio, can I be heard at this time?

Steve Chan:I can't hear you Terri

Terri Agnew:If having audio issue on adobe , try logging in using a different browser

Terri Agnew:or ping me with your telephone number and I can dial out to you

Jeff Neuman:I can hear Terri now

Steve Chan:I can hear as well and I'm on phone. (Jeff is on AC)

Jeff Neuman:Avri has left the building

Terri Agnew:@Avri, can you hear me at this time?

avri doria:nope and tried to call in, but that did not work either

avri doria:even rebooted

Terri Agnew:I will send you a private chat

Jim Prendergast:same here. I'd probably need some tie to review it, especially not at this hour.

Jim Prendergast:on point 2 - is that implying that someone other than the front end registry aka applicant should bear the costs? I don't thnk you are suggesting technical service providers actually pay for it are you?

Jeff Neuman:Can we post the link

Jeff Neuman:And make suggestions

Steve Chan:Available here: https://urldefense.proofpoint.com/v2/url?u=https-3A__docs.google.com_document_d_1nWljRzRgDQgmSlSxyf7G6f2Dv7XDoD01D30KfWhoHNw_edit&d=DwIFaQ&c=FmY1u3PJp6wrcrwll3mSVzgfkbPSS6sJms7xcl4I5cM&r=DRa2dXAvSFpCIgmkXhFzL7ar9Qfqa0AIgn-H4xR2EBk&m=jZkO63PoGHEjIFn6twujY6w4nJ6RxaHeiFDpCX7uejQ&s=f7HazjgaVR1hFdjtZicPZVrIU_yxsvmGQ1KJfetsRA4&e=

Jeff Neuman:If there are specific questions, please ask....but yes, this is a starting poin

Jeff Neuman:point

Donna Austin, Neustar:appreciate that Sara, and I hope my comments aren't being taken as being critical, just some general observations at this point.

Jeff Neuman:That last bullet is a long way of saying it is a voluntary program :)

Jim Prendergast:the costs point is something that going to need more discussion. I don't think this group should dictate that. if two parties want o negotiate it or an RSP wants to offer that, that's a differentiator in the marketplace. buts it's not the role of this group to dictate that.

Jim Prendergast:that probably warrants to clarification to it

Jeff Neuman:I think that is right Donna. Its not to govern the relationship between the RSP and RO, but rather who pays for the cost of technical evaluation if there is a preapproval process

Jeff Neuman:Agree- All, please make suggestions in the google Doc. Lets get the wording to a point where it is clear and we can all agree

Jim Prendergast:will do. I'm better at 11am as opposed to 11pm

Jeff Neuman:Funny Jim...i am better at 11 pm :)

Steve Chan 2:Sorry, missed those. Reloaded with the two points Jeff is discussing now.

Jim Prendergast:I'll elaborate more in google docs on the last point but the fact that icann has had instances of a few operators failing SLAs and having to coach them into compliance makes it difficult to automatically grandfather them. in Justine Chew:Agree with Donna. Also subject to any changes in technical requirements for operating as RSP.

Donna Austin, Neustar:@Jim, we really need ICANN to provide that information before we go down that track.

Justine Chew:So we need to address scalability, Jeff?

Jeff Neuman:that could be one item

Jeff Neuman:again it is for discussion

avri doria:I find the issue of granfathering somewhat problematic. i think there are possibly too many conditions that may vary. i do not see the harm of everyone starting afresh.

Justine Chew:@Donna: Yes, agree with your response.

Jeff Neuman:Thanks Donna - I dont think your comments and mine are inconsistent.

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO):had to drop audio to get into my next ICANN call Donna Austin, Neustar:@ Avri, as I see it and how i read this document, we are really only discussing a pre-approval process and if that doesn't change substantively from what was undertaken in 2012 i don't see why 2012 RSPs could not be grandfathered in.

Jeff Neuman:Perhaps the grandfathering applies to what is the same with perhaps some lesser amount of evaluation on only those new requirements (if any)

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO):sigh 6,5 has of these today from 0300 2 oh of course it's a National public holiday so I shouldn't complain should I

Donna Austin, Neustar:No Cheryl, you should be off playing two-up and leaving the phone at home avri doria:wee are trng to eliminate multipel testings, i do not see the requiremnt to eliminate all testing for some.

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO):poor audio for me

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO):improved

Terri Agnew:let me know if audio goes to poor again

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO):off again a bit

Jim Prendergast:did the community determine the pricing in the previous rounds or was that dictated by ICANN?

Jeff Neuman:@Jim - Dictated by ICANN

Terri Agnew:I reported Avri's AC audio issue earlier. I will add additional poor audio quality to the ticket

Jeff Neuman:Based on some vague formulas and SWAGs on expected volumes

Jim Prendergast:that's what I thought.

Jeff Neuman:Applicant support programs need to get funding from somewhere

Jeff Neuman:(if we have them)

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO):indeed they do!!!

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO):and we should IMO

avri doria:Jeff the cost of those should be calcualted into the total cost.

Jeff Neuman:WE do need to revisit that report. If as people believe there will be 25000 applications, then under the current rates, it would take 25 years to complete delegating those TLDs

Jeff Neuman:So we need to push those boudaries of that recommendation

Jim Prendergast:25 years....wow

Jeff Neuman:That report found no issues with the current rate of delegations and said it could handle much more

Terri Agnew:next call: New gTLD Subsequent Procedures Sub Team – Track 1 - Overall Process/Support/Outreach Issue will take place on Tuesday, 16 May 2017 at 15:00 UTC.
Jeff Neuman:so, that is the key part we (WT 4) may need to discuss Donna Austin, Neustar:@Jeff, do you know who signs off on that report, ie, is it the Board?
Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO):bye for now then lots more to divvying all this from today
Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO):discuss
Edmon:bye
Jeff Neuman:Not sure as it was just outsourced
