Terri Agnew:Welcome Pascal Bekono

Pascal Bekono:Thank you Terri. Hello dear all

Terri Agnew:Welcome Heath Dixon

Heath Dixon:Hello. Thank you!

Marika Konings:There is the Brand Registry Group - but they are not a constituency as far as I am aware, but they are organised as a group externally to ICANN.

Marika Konings:they used to have "interest groups" but if I recall well, that was to accomodate those parties that did not have contracts yet with ICANN but where in the process of getting one (new gTLDs)

Berry Cobb:BRG is classified as an Association within the RySG. However, the BRG as a group does not have voting rights. It is only those .BRANDS that are individual members of the RySG that retain voting privilege.

Berry Cobb:There is also a GEO group setup as the same as the BRG.

Pascal Bekono:Sorry I have a question, Please concerning recommendation 24. I'm asking, I saw the flow chart of the process (pdf file), I saw that the final version was made in 2011, don't you think that it can be review ?

Berry Cobb:I will self-correct myself. The Associations w/in the RySG do have DySG voting rights per its charter and if they meet eligibility criteria.

Berry Cobb:sorry RySG
