

Dear all,

I would like to offer my self-nomination for the NomCom from APRALO. I seek your kind support to for my nomination.

I contribute to IRP2 Internet Research Project Pakistan that advocates a free and open Internet in Pakistan comprising of civil society, news and media and technical community actors. I work within the civil society and academic space within Pakistan. I am an adjunct faculty member at the Center for Public Policy in Lahore and provide advisory and consulting services within the space of ICT and Innovation related Public Policy advisory and consulting. I have served as an IGF MAG member from 2009-2012. I have also served as a Co-Vice Chair to APRALO from 2010-2012 and 2012-2014. I have contributed to ALAC board member selection committees in the past. I would like to contribute my part in the NomCom and continue to be of service to this community.

I request you all to support my self-nomination to the Nom-Com. Also, I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate Amir for actively contributing to the NomCom process from APRALO during his terms

Best

Your friend and community member

Fouad Bajwa.
