MARVELOUS ☀ MADRID

FUN FACTS
- Madrid has the most cloudless days than any other place in Europe.
- Madrid has two main railway stations: Chamartin (north) and Atocha (south).
- Madrid has three art galleries called the Golden Triangle. They consist of the Prado, which has four thousand works of art including Botticelli, El Greco, Velazquez and Goya. The Museo Thyssen-Bornemisza features works by Renoir and Van Eyck. The Museo Nacional Centro de Arte Reina Sofia completes the triangle and houses twentieth century Spanish art, including Guernica by Picasso.
- Madrid's official symbol of the bear on its hind legs, eating berries from the madroño tree, is a metaphor for Madrid's growth and represents possession and ownership of wood, which is necessary for constructing buildings.
