Introduction

From 26 – 29 June 2017, African Regional At-Large Organisation (AFRALO) members, together with other attendees, gathered in Johannesburg, South Africa for the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN) 59 meeting. 42 participants from 26 countries represented their respective At-Large Structures (ALSes) in the General Assembly and other capacity building sessions during the meeting.

Activities

Several activities took place before and during the ICANN 59 meeting:

1. Pre-ICANN59 Activities and Webinars

Before the ICANN59 meeting, several meetings were held between organising committee members and ICANN staff to prepare for all AFRALO activities at ICANN 59. In addition, 3 webinars were held to prepare participants for the meeting. Details and recordings can be accessed through the relevant links below:

2. Local Community Engagement

Monday, 26 June 2017; 9:30 – 12:00 GMT+2

Since the ICANN 47 meeting in Durban, South Africa (July 2013), AFRALO has engaged with local communities each time an ICANN meeting is held in Africa. This time, the session gathered approximately 30 students from the University of Johannesburg, 30 students/inters from the Innovation Hub Management Company, around 42 ALS representatives and other participants interested in At-Large activities. The session was moderated by Tijani Ben Jemaa (ALAC Vice Chair); speakers included Steve Crocker (ICANN Board Chair), Alan Greenberg (ALAC Chair), Sally Costerton (Sr Advisor to President & SVP Global Stakeholder Engagement), Pierre Dandjinou (ICANN VP, GSE for Africa), Dr. Daniel Mashao (Head of Innovation and Research, University of Johannesburg), Jannie Labuschagne (CEO, ZACR), Fatimata

Seye Sylla (Incoming AFRALO Vice Chair), Leon Sanchez (Incoming ICANN Board Director), Seun Ojedeji (ALAC Member) and Sarah Kiden (AFRALO Secretary). Full session transcript and multimedia/audio recordings in English and French available at <https://schedule.icann.org/event/B3zl/at-large-afralo-local-community-engagement>.

3. AFRALO ALS Capacity Building Sessions

As a follow up of the pre-ICANN59 webinars, a total of 4 capacity building sessions were held for ALSes focusing on 4 policy topics: How to participate in names Policy Development Process, Security trends impacting Registrants and End-users, ICANN Empowered Community and Next Generation Registration Directory Services. ALSes selected the topics and sessions were organised in an interactive format to allow participation. Session recordings in English, French available as shown below:

4. AFRALO General Assembly

Wednesday, 28 June 2017 [Part 1: 09:15 – 10:15; Part 2: 10:30 – 12:00 GMT+2]

The General Assembly was held in 2 parts. During Part 1, there was a guest address from - Göran Marby (ICANN President and CEO), which was followed by the signing of a renewed Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between African Network Operating Center (AFRINIC) and AFRALO for collaboration and mutual support. An Activity report – From London to Johannesburg - was presented by Aziz Hilali (AFRALO Chair).

Other invited speakers were Cherine Chalaby (ICANN Board Vice Chair), Pierre Dandjinou (ICANN VP, GSE Africa), Alan Greenberg (ALAC Chair), Sunday Folayan (Chairman, Board of Directors, AFRINIC & founding member AFRALO) and Khaled Koubaa (ICANN Board Director).
