Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO): (22:07) Thx Yvette

Alan Greenberg: (22:08) WE really need to pass that wording by the ASO to make sure THEY beleive it addresses the issue.

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO): (22:08) Let's make that an AI then

Yvette Guigneaux: (22:11) yes

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO): (22:12) Sigh I had spoken but with mute on ;--) Yes and I was noting our thanks to Farzi for turning this table into a Google spreadsheet for our use

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO): (22:16) Happy for a screen share Yes

Yvette Guigneaux: (22:17) yw

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO): (22:18) Be best if you just indicate if you wish to edit or embelish the ST Responses as listed so far as we go through

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO): (22:27) I dont see it as a Must catagory

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO): (22:28) agree Alan

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO): (22:35) AGreed

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO): (22:36) Just a reminder t say your names before each intervention people

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO): (22:38) But try to say your names ;-)

Yvette Guigneaux: (22:38) row 7 - on screen

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO): (22:40) for RT's not ACSO Reviews

Patrick Dodson: (22:41) Hello all, regarding the issue of broader accountability - With all respect to the current positions stated, and not intending to be argumentative, I'd pose the question in an analogy of "states vs federal" points of view and perspective on this issue. The question that the board is posing, is in effect, does the respective constituency ("state", in this analogy), have any duty or responsibility as part of the greater community (the "federal" position of the collective "states" in the "union of ICANN")? In other words, are we just "Texans, or new Yorkers," or are we also "americans"? all apologies to those not based in the US for this analogy.

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO): (22:45) So I am back to saying NO as nicely as you care to

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO): (22:47) Delivery of reports are rarely delayed and usually have totally unrealistic time frames

Steve DelBianco: (22:48) AC/SOs move as quickly as they are able in the selection of team members. When it comes to Review Team members performing their work and delivering a report, we are not aware of any measures that would make their work more timely.

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO): (22:49) Steve the ACSO's hav no real influence ability to speed up of IN RT speed anyway

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO): (22:49) ICANN can resource RT's diiferently but that is NOT ACSO mandate

Steve DelBianco: (22:51) We are unable to identify any mechanism whereby AC/SO can individually or collectively make their work more timely, in the selection of team members performing their work, and delivering a report.

Steve DelBianco: (22:52) Yvette -- I am updating ht actual Google doc while we work

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO): (22:53) Naah just say No

Yvette Guigneaux: (22:53) copy that Steve

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO): (22:55) I doubt we need to go that far in our responses Patric but thanks I do see your point

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO): (22:56) Time Check 4 mins t end call

Patrick Dodson: (22:56) nope

Patrick Dodson: (23:00) "previous" hand

Patrick Dodson: (23:01) ;o)
