Jonathan Zuck: (08:59) Good morning from Vegas

Waudu Siganga: (08:59) J are you gambling?

Jonathan Zuck: (08:59) Just gambling with my health by staying out too late...short night

Jonathan Zuck: (09:03) yep

Jonathan Zuck: (09:03) 3 min

Jean-Baptiste Deroulez: (09:07) correct

David Taylor: (09:07) look good to me

David Taylor: (09:19) This one is to me all about user expectations which may or may not be relevant to diversity.

David Taylor: (09:19) Diversity to be encouraged though in any event.

Waudu Siganga: (09:25) Is this related to vTLD Consortium clatest omment?

Laureen Kapin: (09:25) No.

Gao (on Firefox): (09:26) Hello

Waudu Siganga: (09:26) Perhaps we create a new recommendation under Choice?

Carlton Samuels: (09:31) Good morning all. My apologies for late join. This bleeding service is up and down like a yo-yo.

Carlton Samuels: (09:31) So I might drop off at any time.

Carlton Samuels: (09:32) Would you beleive they are blaming the constant rain for chrissakes!

Gao (on Firefox): (09:32) @Carlton...That's what they do. Here they are blaming the heatwave.

David Taylor: (09:34) gone

Gao (on Firefox): (09:34) Diversity of Business Models is crisp enough Jonathan.

Laureen Kapin: (09:35) To memorialize, JB/JZ suggest adding language in Choice section to discuss encouraging a diversity of new gTLD business models. The new language in the Choice section would cross-reference Rec. 14 and a new introductory sentence would be added to that effect.

Jonathan Zuck: (09:41) sounds right

Jonathan Zuck: (09:41) yes

Carlton Samuels: (09:42) @Waud: +1 on word change. I would support Lauren's on this one too

Drew Bagley: (09:43) +1 keep best practices

David Taylor: (09:43) good with that

Carlton Samuels: (09:43) @Lauren: best practices is indeed aspirational so +1

Gao (on Firefox): (09:44) I would also keep it at Best practice

Carlton Samuels: (09:46) And the ALAC

Carlton Samuels: (09:49) Thank you all. Take care all!

David Taylor: (09:49) bye

Gao (on Firefox): (09:49) bye all
