Staff note: All three elements must be satisfied to prevail under the URS; for the third element, a domain must have been registered and used in bad faith

Staff note: This category relates to domains that the Working Group has agreed previously to describe as dictionary terms

These specific elements have been called out by staff as elements requiring analysis i.e. involving more than mere extraction of facts from the document/record

Staff note: this data cannot be relied upon to prove that entry into the TMCH does, or does not, correlate to the TM holder's ability to prevail in a URS proceeding

This specific element has been called out by staff as elements requiring analysis i.e. involving more than mere extraction of facts from the document/record
