Observations

1: templates for nominations and secondments

Ali Hadji Mmadi (.km) seconded the nomination of Abdalla Omari 3 times: On 26 September 2017, he sent an email to ccnso-nominations@icann.org, confirming his intent to second the nomination of Abdalla Omari by alex Corenthin (.sn). However, the Election Manager informed Ali Hadji Mmadi about the template that needs to be used for a secondment to be valid. Ali Hadji Mmadi subsequently submitted the correct template on 28 September 2017, and a second time on 29 September 2017.

Based on an advice by the Election Manager from 31 October 2016 Report on the ccNSO Council Regular Elections, the ccNSO Council instructed the Guideline Review committee and the secretariat to review the templates for nominations and secondments as part of a review of the ccNSO Council Election Guideline. Despite the fact that the draft revised ccNSO Council Election guideline has to date, 30 November 2017, not yet been adopted by the ccNSO Council and is not applicable to the Council Election FY18, the slightly adjusted and clear wording of the templates as included in the call

for nominations, ensured a smooth nomination and secondment procedure. The templates included in the call for nominations followed the ccNSO Rules and Guidelines, except for the fact that in the secondment template, it was not needed to specify the full name of the nominator whose candidate was being seconded.

2: timing of Council Elections

2.1. Appointment Election Manager

Joke Braeken was appointed Election Manager at the ccNSO Council Telephone Conference on 24 August 2017. The applicable ccNSO Rules and Guidelines however specify the following: “The ccNSO Council shall appoint the Election Manager and establish the time line for nomination and election of ccNSO Councillors by members, no later than 1 August of each year.”

2.2. end regular term council member

As part of its mandate, the ccNSO Guideline Review Committee (GRC) reviewed the current ccNSO Guideline pertaining to Council Elections. The GRC noted that according to Article 10.4 (g) (was Article IX, section 4.7) of the ICANN Bylaws, the end of the regular term of a Council member is at the end ICANNs annual meeting. Assuming Annual Meetings of ICANN are held late October, early November (see ICANN calendar) the time line as prescribed in the ICANN Bylaws is at odds with the relevant timeline for the Council elections since the creation of the ccNSO.

The Guideline Review Committee requested Council whether to change the future election periods and align them with the ICANN Bylaws, or leave it “as is”. Following a discussion of the Council the election period remains “as is” allowing elected Councillors to take their seat on Council at the end of the first face-to face meeting in a calendar year.

Closure of the Election Process

The Council Election process 2017 will formally close 7 days after adoption and publication of this report.
