April 4, 2018   9:12:40 AM   from Robin Gross to all participants: The mic next to my name indicates it is muted, but the mic in the lower right corner says unmuted. Not sure which one is correct.

April 4, 2018   9:12:50 AM   from Alan Greenberg to all participants: "Call-in User_2 needs to mute!

April 4, 2018   9:13:56 AM   from Susan Payne to all participants: Robin - not Robon!!

April 4, 2018   9:14:11 AM   from Robin Gross to all participants: ok, thanks. it says I'm on mute. hopefully that is true!

April 4, 2018   9:14:18 AM   from Alan Greenberg to all participants: Note that on Windows version, chat is not displayed by default, so may be invisible to many.

April 4, 2018   9:14:19 AM   from Javier Rúa-Jovet to all participants: Pleas all mute when not speaking. Button is next to your name in attendees list.

April 4, 2018   9:15:43 AM   from Paul McGrdy to all participants: I just noticed a self-inflicted typo in my name. I have no idea how to fix it in WebEx, so have just decided to enjoy it as a matter of whimsy.

April 4, 2018   9:16:33 AM   from Javier Rúa-Jovet to all participants: Kavouss, mute/unmute icon is next to your name in attendees list.

April 4, 2018   9:17:33 AM   from Nathalie Peregrine to all participants: @Paul, we will have spelling of name fixed when sending out attendance list

April 4, 2018   9:17:35 AM   from Javier Rúa-Jovet to all participants: yes

April 4, 2018   9:17:36 AM   from Yrjö Länsipuro to all participants: @ Kavouss Mute/Unmute is from the Event Center > Participant drop down menu

April 4, 2018   9:18:40 AM   from Annebeth Lange to all participants: It should be possible to make it into a word-document. Could we look into that?

April 4, 2018   9:19:02 AM   from Emily Barabas to all participants:We can do that if the group would like to do so.

April 4, 2018   9:19:25 AM   from Javier Rúa-Jovet to all participants: I agree with Annebeth. It should be made into a word doc.

April 4, 2018   9:19:39 AM   from Annebeth Lange to all participants: Where do we see who raise their hand?

April 4, 2018   9:20:08 AM   from Julie Hedlund to all participants: @Annebeth: The panelists and hosts can alert you to raised hands.

April 4, 2018   9:20:16 AM   from Javier Rúa-Jovet to all participants: Annebeth, I dont think we see hands; seems like host sees them.

April 4, 2018   9:20:17 AM   from Alan Greenberg to all participants: Annabeth, the only way I know is to hit ALL PARTICIPANTS and the manually scroll through it.

April 4, 2018   9:20:19 AM   from Annebeth Lange to all participants: Great, thanks

April 4, 2018   9:20:22 AM   from Julie Hedlund to all participants: @Kavouss: Your hand is still raised? Is that a new hand?

April 4, 2018   9:21:13 AM   from Cheryl Langdon-Orr to all participants: Hosts (staff) can see more easily but for us we need to look down the list of participants ... I believe

April 4, 2018   9:21:17 AM   from Nathalie Peregrine to all participants: finding the line

April 4, 2018   9:21:18 AM   from Javier Rúa-Jovet to all participants: Please mute

April 4, 2018   9:21:25 AM   from Javier Rúa-Jovet to all participants: thanks

April 4, 2018   9:21:27 AM   from Julie Hedlund to all participants: @Annebeth: We see your hand is raised.

April 4, 2018   9:21:27 AM   from Javier Rúa-Jovet to all participants: yes

April 4, 2018   9:21:31 AM   from Cheryl Langdon-Orr to all participants: you need to select all participnts

April 4, 2018   9:22:17 AM   from Nathalie Peregrine to all participants: @Maureen , the op is dialing out

April 4, 2018   9:22:22 AM   from Alexander Schubert to all participants: I agree with "Two Characters"

April 4, 2018   9:22:43 AM   from Jeff Neuman to all participants: Yes, all other 2 character combination strings have been referred to Work Track 2

April 4, 2018   9:23:12 AM   from Paul McGrdy to all participants: @Nathalie, thanks very much!

April 4, 2018   9:23:29 AM   from Susan Payne to all participants: agree with notion of this applying to 2-letters. letter/number is not a geo term

April 4, 2018   9:23:50 AM   from Mzia Gogilashvili to all participants: I agree too

April 4, 2018   9:24:58 AM   from Annebeth Lange to all participants: It is then possible to comment that on the report WT2 will send out

April 4, 2018   9:25:00 AM   from Javier Rúa-Jovet to all participants: There seems to be rough agreement on this first proposal

April 4, 2018   9:25:19 AM   from Jeff Neuman to all participants: The notion of string similarity (ie, strings being confusingly similar to others) is a topic being discussed in Work Track 3

April 4, 2018   9:25:53 AM   from Annebeth Lange to all participants: So then it will be possible to comment it when WT 1-4 send out a report?

April 4, 2018   9:26:47 AM   from Alexander Schubert to all participants: HAnds up!

April 4, 2018   9:26:48 AM   from Jeff Neuman to all participants: Thus, whether a string is "confusingly similar" to a geographic term is not treated any differently than a string being confusingly similar to another string. Therefore the rules determined from Work Track 3 will be applied to geographic strings as it is applied to others

April 4, 2018   9:28:09 AM   from Rosalia Morales to all participants: + 1 Anne Catherine

April 4, 2018	9:29:13 AM	from Annebeth Lange to all participants:	The only thing WT5 has in its scope is to determine what names are and what are not available as gTLDs.

April 4, 2018	9:31:44 AM	from Annebeth Lange to all participants:	Especially the government representatives did not want 3-letter codes and country names as gTLDs. And the scope of WT 5 is only to decide if they are available as gTLDs. And to be something else, that needs change in Bylaws, as far as I can see. If they are not ccTLDs and not gTLDs.

April 4, 2018	9:32:41 AM	from Javier Rúa-Jovet to all participants:	GAC and ccTLDs

April 4, 2018	9:33:59 AM	from Julie Hedlund to all participants: @Annebeth: We see your hand up.

April 4, 2018	9:34:00 AM	from Robin Gross to all participants:	Taking out of GNSO scope would violate ICANN's bylaws too.

April 4, 2018	9:35:19 AM	from Adrián Carballo to all participants:	3 cararcter letter podes should not be availabe for new gtlds

April 4, 2018	9:35:46 AM	from Steve Chan to all participants:	As mentioned by Martin, here is some specific language contained in the Terms of Reference, "Broader discussions about the remit of SOs and ACs, as well as the allocation of second and third level geographic domains are specifically out of scope for this Work Track." available here: https://community.icann.org/x/RgS8B

April 4, 2018	9:35:51 AM	from Katrin Ohlmer to all participants:	I agree about how to deal with the 2 and 3 character codes

April 4, 2018	9:36:47 AM	from Rosalia Morales to all participants:	+1 Nick

April 4, 2018	9:36:48 AM	from Jeff Neuman to all participants:	@Robin, it is not being taken out of the GNSO. I believe that what is being said is that the issues of whether something is a gTLD or a ccTLD is not a discussion that is appropriate within this work track.

April 4, 2018	9:37:15 AM	from Robin Gross to all participants:	Yes, I was agreeing, Jeff. :-)

April 4, 2018	9:37:49 AM	from Adrián Carballo to all participants:	Sorry for the predictive

April 4, 2018	9:39:59 AM	from Olga Cavalli to all participants:	sound!

April 4, 2018	9:40:09 AM	from Annebeth Lange to all participants:	Comments already on the spread sheet that these should be maintained as in 2012

April 4, 2018	9:41:09 AM	from Annebeth Lange to all participants:	In 2012, all languages were protected

April 4, 2018	9:41:16 AM	from Alexander Schubert to all participants:	In ALL languages!

April 4, 2018	9:41:25 AM	from Nathalie Peregrine to all participants:	As a reminder to mute via webex to the right of your name select the gray microphone. Once microphone turns red - you are muted. Grey =unmuted and red = muted

April 4, 2018	9:42:05 AM	from Jeff Neuman to all participants:	It applies to v as well

April 4, 2018	9:43:21 AM	from Poncelet Ileleji to all participants:	Hello All sorry for joining a bit late

April 4, 2018	9:43:43 AM	from Emily Barabas to all participants:for those who would like to reference the deliberations spreadsheet, please use this link: https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/1FuPEq0y-cdSUQ1nvhWKhVnG8PLaC2RYXsCpQu91FDqo/edit#gid=358523414

April 4, 2018	9:44:00 AM	from Alexander Schubert to all participants:	Quote: "it is a separable component of a country name designated on the "Separable Country Names List," or is a translation of a name appearing on the list, in any language."

April 4, 2018	9:44:01 AM	from Ali Hussein Kassim to all participants:	Hello all. Joining now. Had some challenges with Webex

April 4, 2018	9:44:28 AM	from Jeff Neuman to all participants:	Transliterations should be handled in the confusingly similar / string similarity evaluation.

April 4, 2018	9:44:43 AM	from Javier Rúa-Jovet to all participants:	All UN languages is a possible parameter there to evaluate.

April 4, 2018	9:46:08 AM	from Alexander Schubert to all participants:	3166 Alpha-3 letter codes: all permutations were exempted. But NOT transpositions!

April 4, 2018	9:46:10 AM	from Olga Cavalli to all participants:	UN languages may be few

April 4, 2018	9:46:15 AM	from Jeff Neuman to all participants:	Permutation would be if someone applied for something like Czech-Republic as opposed to checkrepublic

April 4, 2018	9:46:27 AM	from Jeff Neuman to all participants:	the latter being a transliteration

April 4, 2018	9:46:39 AM	from Robin Gross to all participants:	Thinking this through, would these rules mean that the word "turkey" or "china" could not appear in a TLD, even with other words giving different meaning than the country name?

April 4, 2018	9:47:50 AM	from Nathalie Peregrine to all participants:	@Paul, thanks for this!

April 4, 2018	9:48:08 AM	from Jeff Neuman to all participants:	@Robin - I do not believe those are permutations

April 4, 2018   9:49:13 AM   from Nathalie Peregrine to all participants: as a reminder, to lower hand, select the hand icon a second time.

April 4, 2018   9:49:16 AM   from Annebeth Lange to all participants: For a non-English speaker, the words permutation and transposition are difficult to understanad

April 4, 2018   9:50:02 AM   from Jeff Neuman to all participants: What would be evidence of "commonly known" if not from s treaty organization or IGO

April 4, 2018   9:53:52 AM   from Alexander Schubert to all participants: Hand up

April 4, 2018   9:56:22 AM   from Rahul Gosain to host & presenter: Hand Raised

April 4, 2018   9:56:59 AM   from Sara Bockey to all participants: Apologies... need to drop for another call.

April 4, 2018   9:57:17 AM   from Alexander Schubert to all participants: The Alpha 3 strings and territory names were not "reserved" - they were EXEMPTED due to the failure of the 2007 PDP to define policies! That's a big difference!

April 4, 2018   9:57:56 AM   from Annebeth Lange to all participants: Emily, I have now only grey microphone - it is not clickable any more. I am not sure if you hear me if I talk now

April 4, 2018   9:59:01 AM   from Rosalia Morales to all participants: +1 Ann-Cathrin

April 4, 2018   9:59:29 AM   from Annebeth Lange to all participants: I have problems with sound no

April 4, 2018   9:59:37 AM   from Annebeth Lange to all participants: Sorry, somthing has happened.

April 4, 2018   9:59:41 AM   from Javier Rúa-Jovet to all participants: yes

April 4, 2018   9:59:50 AM   from Nathalie Peregrine to all participants: @Annebeth your microphone is red (muted) you will need to unmute to be heard

April 4, 2018   10:00:10 AM   from Steve Chan to all participants: Note that from the 2012 Applicant Guidebook, bullets ii (long-form), iii (short-form), and v (separable component) specifically noted "in any language." Bullet vii (commonly known) does not specifically mention in any language.

April 4, 2018   10:00:16 AM   from Robin Gross to all participants: Does Klingon count as a language? ;-)

April 4, 2018   10:00:17 AM   from Annebeth Lange to all participants: It is not red, it is grey and does not react when I click

April 4, 2018   10:00:21 AM   from Javier Rúa-Jovet to all participants: hand up

April 4, 2018   10:00:54 AM   from Nathalie Peregrine to all participants: @Annebeth, we are showign you as still connected. Is it possible for you to join via telephone?

April 4, 2018   10:00:57 AM   from Olga Cavalli to all participants: @Alan good point abour languages, perhaps a repository of names where countries could add their relevant languages versions

April 4, 2018   10:01:44 AM   from Annebeth Lange to all participants: @Nathalie, I am on phone, but you dont hear me

April 4, 2018   10:01:48 AM   from Robin Gross to all participants: There are some languages only spoken by a very small number of people who are not related to the string, so those shouldn't be included in the ban.

April 4, 2018   10:02:22 AM   from Katrin Ohlmer to all participants: @Steve: Thanks for the clarification about the category "commonly known"!

April 4, 2018   10:02:47 AM   from Nathalie Peregrine to all participants: @Annebeth, I have unmuted you, lets see if that works

April 4, 2018   10:03:14 AM   from Olga Cavalli to all participants: @Javier yes I agree with Crhistopher suggestion or build a repository where countries cann addtheir names in relevant languages for their community. Sorry there is no way for me to unmute :(

April 4, 2018   10:03:24 AM   from Annebeth Lange to all participants: @Nathalie, yes, now it changed

April 4, 2018   10:04:20 AM   from Javier Rúa-Jovet to all participants: Yep. Its a "to do". "Any language" might be too broad. UN official languages its a good list, but maybe too short.

April 4, 2018   10:05:43 AM   from Alexander Schubert to all participants: hands up

April 4, 2018   10:05:47 AM   from Robin Gross to all participants: Heather, yes, I think that is the concern I raised with words like "turkey" and "china" being uniformly banned.

April 4, 2018   10:05:50 AM   from Adrián Carballo to all participants: it should be all languages

April 4, 2018   10:06:17 AM   from Nathalie Peregrine to all participants: as a reminder, to lower your hand. Select the hand icon again to lower it

April 4, 2018   10:06:45 AM   from Nathalie Peregrine to all participants: finding the line

April 4, 2018   10:06:53 AM   from Olga Cavalli to all participants: @ALexander the idea of a list is a good one

April 4, 2018   10:07:03 AM   from Olga Cavalli to all participants: sorry I cannot unmute :(

April 4, 2018   10:07:44 AM   from Katrin Ohlmer to all participants: +1 Nick

April 4, 2018   10:07:48 AM   from John Rodriguez to all participants: Agree with Heather Forrest point about various interpretations may exist.

April 4, 2018   10:07:55 AM   from Olga Cavalli to all participants: @Christopher official languages seems to be a good approach

April 4, 2018   10:07:58 AM   from Nathalie Peregrine to all participants: @Olga, I can unmute you if needed

April 4, 2018   10:08:24 AM   from Alan Greenberg to all participants: The point I raised was not a philosophical one of protecting names but how one manages it and still provded predictability for applicants.
