How NextGen Differs From Fellowship

The Fellowship Program focuses on Global capacity development program to support diversity and active involvement in ICANN's multistakeholder community. Online application process is open three times per year. 45 Fellows are selected for each ICANN Meeting (including mentors). Candidates must be at least 21 years of age, no age cap to participate

The NextGen@ICANN program focuses on education, awareness and future engagement. Applicants must be between the ages of 18 and 30, live and be enrolled in some type of higher learning curriculum in the region where the ICANN Public Meeting is being held. 12 candidates are selected per meeting to engage in customized, topical discussions. 3 Additional previous NextGen serve as Ambassadors for these new NextGen

The Unique Qualities Of Each Program

Fellowship

Opportunity to interact closely with ICANN Community Leaders. Alumni form connections that enable continuous post-meeting networking and support in their ICANN journey

NextGen

Orchestrated interaction with the ICANN community and organization to encourage future engagement. Participants create a 10 minute presentation to share at the Meeting, demonstrating their expertise and ideas related to Internet Governance

Newcomer

Structured learning experience by participating in person or remotely at an ICANN Public Meeting. Participants feel welcomed and ready to engage in ICANN activities going forward

How Program Funding Works
