A simple one.

Point #8:

Current wording:

8. ICANN relies on its mission and bylaws to justify the requirement that registration data be disclosed in certain circumstances, but the EPDP team seeks supplemental information from ICANN to make it clear why the mission and bylaws make such disclosures necessary.

8. ICANN relies on its mission and bylaws to justify the requirement that registration data be disclosed in certain circumstances, but the EPDP team seeks supplemental information from ICANN to determine whether or not the mission and bylaws make such disclosures necessary.
