

Age Numerique

Age Numerique is based in Abidjan, Ivory Coast.

Age Numerique is a place where people can exchange ideas, expert thinking, ideas and projects which help citizens and those with the power of decision to advance in the interest of all within educational, scientific, cultural and social projects.

Age Numerique focuses on three points:

- The association provides thoughts on economic, political and social evolution in a digital era.
- Age Numerique brings concrete solutions to economic and political deciders
- Seeks to reduce the digital divide and to increase access
