Meeting Description:

An At-Large community call introducing the features of the Confluence wiki that ICANN will be transitioning to is being planned for mid- June. Carole Cornell, Director Project Offices, ICANN, will be the guest speaker. Carole will discuss the reasons for the transition from Social Text to Confluence, introduce the features of Confluence, provide details on the training of At-Large community members, and set out the proposed time-table of the transition.

All members of the At-Large community are encouraged to participate in this meeting. Please note that the Chair of the ALAC has requested that all ALAC members and At-Large regional representatives who will be participating in the 38th ICANN Meeting in Brussels participate in this meeting as it will serve as the introduction to the training session they will have during their Sunday, 20 June Workshop.

This call will have ES and FR interpretation.

Presenter: Carole Cornell, Director Project Offices, ICANN
