What is NARALO?

Welcome to the online home of the At-Large (individual Internet user community) for the North American region, providing news, key resources and interactive features for information sharing for individuals and end-user groups in the North American region interested in ICANN and shaping the future of the Internet.

NOTE: According to ICANN region’s, NARALO comprises organisations and individuals located in Canada, the United States, and Puerto Rico. Anyone interested from Central America or the Caribbean would join LACRALO.

The 2017 NARALO General Assembly (GA) took place during ARIN in New Orleans, Louisiana.

ICANN North America Community Completes Training Series on Universal Acceptance

The North America Regional NARALO (NARALO North America) completed the Universal Acceptance Training Series over the past six months. The training is designed to help individuals and organizations understand and embrace Universal Acceptance. The training series took place from January to March 2022. Participants had the opportunity to gain knowledge and skills in Universal Acceptance, which is critical for creating inclusive and welcoming environments.

All workshop and presentations are available here.
