

Congratulations! You know how to use a workspace

Up: Workspace Tour - Table of Contents

Back: What's the funny punctuation?

You're now ready to use your workspace! Now, think about how you want to use it for you and your workgroup, and start creating and editing pages.

To start, you might want to edit your workspace's home page. Go there by clicking on Home.

Or, you can start with any other page you'd like.

For more ideas, check out the collection of Best Practices over at the Socialtext Customer Exchange. Just ask sales@socialtext.com to be invited!

Enjoy!
