Description

The At-Large Communications Strategy is the high level document that has been developed to incorporate the policy, organisational and outreach and engagement communication needs of At-Large.

The Strategy was initiated by the ATLAS III Communications Strategy, and the diagram summary (see above) was the first guide for communications related to the three workstreams (policy, outreach, organization).

The ALAC Subcommittee on Outreach and Engagement (O&E) Communications Strategy Subgroup will use the At-Large Communications Strategy as a guide for developing O&E strategies.
