Selection of the At-Large Delegates to the ICG CLOSED >>

Expression of Interest - ICG (view restriction applied)

The Sub-Committee was responsible for selecting two (2) candidates from the At-Large community to participate in the NTIA IANA Functions' Stewardship Transition Coordination Group. Interested members from the At-Large community should send their Expressions of Interest (EOI) to staff@atlarge.icann.org by Tuesday 08 July 2014 23:59 UTC. In their EOI, candidates should respond to the following:

- A Resume (maximum three pages)
- A Letter of Motivation
- A Declaration of Interests
- Responses to 3 questions posed by the Sub-Committee as follows:

  (a) Why do you believe that you are in a position to fairly defend end user interests on the IANA Stewardship Transition Coordination Group?

  (b) Are you ready to act as a liaison from the ALAC to the Coordination Committee and act according to the directions set by the ALAC?

  (c) Please describe previous roles you have held liaising on behalf of a third party

Elimination Process - ICG (view restriction applied)

The Sub-Committee members used a straw ballot elimination process, a lively mailing list discussion, and a conference call to make the decision on the candidates.

This process is now closed.

Selection of the At-Large Delegates to the Accountability CCWG `CLOSED`

Expression of Interest - Accountability CCWG (view restriction applied)

The Sub-Committee is responsible for selecting five (5) candidates (one candidate per region) from the At-Large community to participate in the ICANN Cross Community Working Group on Enhancing ICANN Accountability (Accountability CCWG).

Please click here to read the prerequisite for Accountability CCWG members **>>

- Members must be familiar with, or be prepared to quickly learn about, current ICANN accountability measures and the earlier Accountability and Transparency Review Team (ATRT) efforts (see https://www.icann.org/resources/pages/enhancing-accountability-2014-05-06-en, Section "Inventory of ICANN's Accountability Efforts").
- Members must also commit to actively participate in the activities of the CCWG-Accountability on an ongoing and long-term basis. This means attending conference calls which will likely last 60-90 minutes per week, ongoing mailing list interactions and the ability to travel to any potential face to face meeting, if the CCWG decides to do so. The total length of engagement is likely to be at least 6 months to a year or possibly more.

Interested members from the At-Large community should send their Expressions of Interest (EOI) to staff@atlarge.icann.org by 26 November 2014 23: 59 UTC. In their EOI, candidates should respond to the following:

- A Resume (maximum three pages)
- A Statement explaining why they are interested in serving in this capacity
- A Declaration of Interests indicating any potential or actual conflicts
- Respond to the following questions addressing their ability to carry out responsibilities posed by the Selection Committee as follows:

(a) Why do you believe that you are in a position to fairly defend end user interests on the ICANN Accountability CCWG?
(b) Are you prepared to act as a representative of the ALAC act according to the directions set by the ALAC?
(c) Please describe previous roles you have held liaising on behalf of a third party.
(d) Please describe how you meet or will meet the criteria regarding ICANNs current accountability mechanisms and review processes.
(e) Are you prepared to make the participation and time commitment specified above?

Elimination Process - Accountability CCWG (view restriction applied)

The Sub-Committee members will use a straw ballot elimination process, a lively mailing list discussion, and a conference call to make the decision on the candidates.
