Evan Leibovitch: (11:13) BTW also: Hi all. Very weird seeing things from this end of the AC room :-)

Derek Hanson: (11:13) Hello, we replaced some audio hardware during break. Trying to increase volume.

Evan Leibovitch: (11:13) Hi Derek. Thanks. I'm happy to offer feedback.

Ariel Liang: (11:13) thanks Derek!

Evan Leibovitch: (11:39) Who is speaking? The camera doesn't show the tent card.

Fatima Cambroner: (11:40) Seun

Evan Leibovitch: (11:40) Gracias!

Fatima Cambroner: (11:40) de nada :)

Evan Leibovitch: (11:51) I cannot speak by phone but am happy to participate by chat on the PIC issue

Evan Leibovitch: (11:52) I am proposing that, in addition to the scoresheet that ALAC has seen, that ICANN/ALAC prepare a public information brochure that identifies the problem and at least informs the public to be aware Evan Leibovitch: (11:53) (That is, to understand that simply because a TLD string indicates a public-trusted word, does not mean there is any regulation of those strings. This is IMO especially necessary for the TLDs listed in RED in the report card.

Evan Leibovitch: (11:53) (Could someone please read this request into the meeting?)

Ariel Liang: (11:54) Evan, you mean this? I am proposing that, in addition to the scoresheet that ALAC has seen, that ICANN/ALAC prepare a public information brochure that identifies the problem and at least informs the public to be aware

Evan Leibovitch: (11:54) yes, as well as the following line

Evan Leibovitch: (11:55) could be brochure/web page/etc

Ariel Liang: (11:55) okay. I will read your comment for you

Evan Leibovitch: (11:55) the forms of the media isn't important ;-)

Evan Leibovitch: (11:56) (and yes, I will offer to help with it though I lack the cycles to do it alone)

Ariel Liang: (11:57) As a reminder to remote participants: When submitting a question that you want me to read out loud on the mic, please provide your name and affiliation if you have one, start your sentence with <QUESTION> and end it with <QUESTION>. When submitting a comment that you want me to read out loud of the mic, once again provide your name and affiliation if you have one then start your sentence with a <COMMENT> and end it with <COMMENT>. Text outside these quotes will be considered as part of ^chat^ and will not be read out loud on the mic.

Evan Leibovitch: (11:57) Thanks!

Evan Leibovitch: (11:58) Good proposal.

Evan Leibovitch: (12:01) <COMMENT>The issue is greater than content -- and besides, ICANN has already crossed that line when by policy it allowed for the inclusion of "objectionable" strings (as is in the middle of controversy over .SUCKS). The issue is greater than content. The issue is public trust in the DNS.</COMMENT>

Evan Leibovitch: (12:02) How did proxy registrations get into the PIC discussion?

Evan Leibovitch: (12:02) proxy

Evan Leibovitch: (12:05) Did my comment make it under the deadline?

Evan Leibovitch: (12:06) THANKS!

Evan Leibovitch: (12:07) I'M OK with Olivier's friendly amendment.

Glenn McKnight: (12:09) Yes

Evan Leibovitch: (12:09) Thanks for addressing the PIC issue

Glenn McKnight: (12:10) Yes\

Ariel Liang: (12:16) This meeting is now ajourned.
