Matt? :) matthew shears:Ithink that the accountability proposal is also asking for input from commenters on the issue of human rights in the bylaws in parallel Megan Richards, European Commission:thisis what the report seems to say but perhaps this is evolving: • W ork plan for Work Stream 2 to: o Enhance diversity and the culture of transparency within ICANN o Further address concerns about community accountability. The 2nd Draft Report includes a recommendation for regular structural reviews of SOs and ACs to assess their accountability towards their participants as well as towards the stakeholders they are designed to represent.o Elaborate on a Commitment to human rights in the ICANN Bylaws. • Details on an implementation plan for Work Stream 1, including a Bylaws drafting process. Megan Richards, European Commission:sorry- wrong cut and paste !! apologies matthew shears:interms of strategy it will be important for a number of diverse entities to input on this inthe public consultation- the comment review process does not weight the inputs so more inputs on issues of concerns such as HR is important Avri Doria: I planto put in my own comment on the issue. Avri Doria: both HR related and other. matthewshears: + 1 matthewshears: I think we have to leave a lot of this to WS2. If we start to get into the detail the bylaw may get very long and cumbersome Tatiana Tropina: I think it is better to avoid detailing bylaws in order to avoid long legal debates which can get us to nowhere and delay the changes we want matthew shears: yep Tatiana Tropina: again I don't know how far this discussion went before, may be I am just repeating what has already been discussed many times Megan Richards, European Commission: perhaps its a problem with the mike - inanutshell I agree with marilia's comment Maryam Bakoshi: Hi Megan, please could you provide your number for dial out Amr Elsadr: @Matt: RE: HRs in WS2, that sounds logical to me, so +1. For now, some form of commitment from the CCWG to include HR issues in WS2 wouldn't be such a bad thing though. Megan Richards, European Commission: My number is +322 2962443 but marilia said exactly what I was going to say - Avri Doria: The Corporation shall operate for the benefit of the Internet community as a whole, carrying out its activities in conformity with relevant principles of international law and applicable international conventions and local law and, to the extent appropriate and consistent with these Articles and its Bylaws, through open and transparent processes that enable competition and open entry in Internet-related markets. To this effect, the Corporation shall cooperate as appropriate with relevant international organizations. matthew shears: shame we can't just asterisk the bylaw above after the word conventions and add if need be UDHR and ICCPR Tatiana Tropina: @Matthew, it's articles of incorporation I think :) matthew shears: thanks Megan Richards, European Commission: the articles of incorporation cover all Avri Doria: ... cover all that are relevant ... applicable ... and to the extent appropriate consistent with the bylaws. Tatiana Tropina: Yes, in a general way Megan Richards, European Commission: the Articles take precedence over the bylaws - the bylaws can limit the application or clarify the specific provisions Tatiana Tropina: +1 to Megan. I see any changes made to bylaws as clarification of this general commitment Megan Richards, European Commission: ICANN has agreed to apply the applicable and relevant provisions by virtue of the provisions of its Articles of incorporation - public international law and its application is a separate issue and not what we should be discussing here matthewshears: agree with simple phrasing for bylaws Avri Doria: those are not my concerns, as much as the concerns of others. I support the most general language. Tatiana Tropina: I actually don't see any way to make other than simple wording of bylaws Megan Richards, European Commission: am responding in the chat then Megan Richards, European Commission: we should ensure that the work is not duplicating that done in GAC HRWG and other fora matthew shears: good point - have the GAC discussions evolved since the meeting in BA? Megan Richards, European Commission: not yet but would be a pity if the various groups were to either duplicate or heavens forbid contradict that of each other Avri Doria: Isn't the GAC having a similar definitional issues as the WP4 is having Megan Richards, European Commission: thanks and apologies for no voice :-) matthew shears: thanks Niels, all Tatiana Tropina: thanks! Niels ten Oeover - Article19: Thanks all! MaryamBakoshi: Thank you all |

It's a verydebateableissue in terms of how exactly thatrelatesto theICANNremit, but if theHRTalkstarts with UDRP in detail I can expect the reaction :) what I mean is that there seems to be a strong link for thembetweenICANN and thatincidetin the HR context. I can expect there will be efforts to stick it in         Marianne F:..I see your point but won't there be this sort of push back anyway? If this example really could become a red herring (forgive the pun) then leave it out for now. We can always put it back in...         Alexandra:yeahI guess you're right.. The real needofHR consideration in ICANN is on how the policies affect domain name holders. This is done using the governance mechanisms via the contracts between ICANN and the registries and registrars, as well as the contracts between the registrars and the registrants.AmrElsadr:I'mnotsayinthat CSR should be excluded, but it shouldn't dominate the focus of the group.Avri Doria:apologiesforbeinglate. ithoughtit was later.matthew shears:businessresponsibilityto respect HR: http://www.ihrb.org/pdf/state-of-play/State-of-Play-Full-Report.pdfnigelhickson:AssumethecantalkonCOEwork?matthew shears:@ Amr - understand your point re CSR - but I guess my feeling is that using that approach as an umbrella may make the issue for palatableAmr Elsadr:@Matt: Looks interesting.
